

Model Release

My name is [please enter name in the release form].

My address is [please enter address in the release form].

I am fully contractually capable.

For the following Image/s [PLEASE ENTER IMAGE ID AND THUMBNAİL] displaying my picture, (hereinafter referred to as "Image Material"), I make the following declaration:

I hereby confirm that I am willing to grant the photographer the irrevocable right (that may be transferred to third parties) to use the Image Material without any restriction of time, content or territory and to transfer this right for utilisation, in whole or in part, to third parties (hereinafter referred to as "Entitled Persons"). These are in particular EyeEm Mobile GmbH, Brunnenstrasse 9, 10119 Berlin, Germany (hereinafter referred to as "EyeEm"), companies affiliated with EyeEm as well as their customers.

If the Image Material has been created in a protected area (apartment, a fenced area) that is part of my private sphere, I herewith confirm that I am the solely authorised person who may decide whether or not these Images from/in the protected area may be used.

This authorisation covers all the rights of use required for the comprehensive utilisation and processing of the Image Material by the photographer or by the Entitled Persons. The authorisation shall continue to be valid even after my death.

The authorisation must include, among others:

- The reproduction right
- The distribution right
- The right of public accessibility
- The transmission right and broadcasting right
- The right to call up, and use online
- The right to process or otherwise change the Image Material, e.g. that the Image Material may be combined, edited or changed with other images, text and graphics, films, audio and audio-visual media.

The permission for using the Image Material applies to every purpose, in particular, but not exclusively, advertising and marketing purposes and other commercial uses.

The use of the Image Material is permitted in any context – except for pornographic or defamatory contexts.

I have received an appropriate financial compensation for taking the photographs and the rights granted in this release. The receipt of this remuneration is acknowledged hereby. Thus, all possible claims against EyeEm and their customers have been settled.

Where copyrights, performance protection rights or other rights have arisen due to my participation in the creation of photographs, to which I am entitled, the aforementioned declarations shall apply accordingly.

I understand that the Image Material is used without mentioning my name and that it cannot be excluded, however, that on individual photographs I might be identifiable.

I recognise explicitly that there is no obligation to mention my name when reproducing the Image Material.

I have given all necessary declarations as required by data-protection law to the photographer; I am also aware that the photographer may store my data and use them for the purposes mentioned here in connection with the Image Material, e.g. in order to defend himself against any third-party claims or to secure claims.

☐ I have understood the above Declaration and agree to its entire content. I certify that the information I have given is true and correct.

☐ I have read the Privacy Policy for Releases (http://dl.eyeem.com/market/privacy_policy_for_releases.pdf) and agree to their entire content.

☐ Reconfirmation of the submitted Declaration.
